WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair and colder tonight and Saturday; fresh westerly winds, diminishing.

Junior Order Mechanics.

The called meeting of James W. Jackson Council, No. 55, Junior Order of American Mechanics, for the purpose of welcoming home and honoring Mr. W. K. Griffith, a member of Jackson Council, who was elected State Councilor at the State Council, held in Danville, was largely attended, a number of visitors from Washington being present. After listening to an encouraging report of the Danville proceedings and remarks made by Councilor Griffith, a social smoker was indulged in. About 9 o'clock the council adjourned to assemble at Mr. F. Schwab's restaurant and partake of a banquet in honor of their newly elected State Councilor. Past Councilor Frank Warder presided at the banquet, and during the evening several appropriate speeches were made, and in discussing the menu Mr. Wm. Mullen alluded to the patriotic decorations made by the festooning of flags intermingled with palms and ferns. He spoke of the oysters that were served enveloped "in rolled cracker crumbs and done to a chesnut-brown as appealing to the lover of an appetizing dish, about which there need be no inward qualms, no danger from bacilli or menace of typhoid fever if you used malted water with them." Pleasantries were exchanged and an enjoyable entertainment closed by singing "My Country 'tis of Thee."

Red Men.

At the regular meeting of Osceola Tribe, No. 1, I. O. R. M., held in their wigwam last night, degrees were conferred upon two "pale faces" and much business for the good of the order transacted, at the close of which the tribe was commanded to trail to Mr. F. Schwab's restaurant and seek out his oyster roaster and bivalves. Guided by Sachem John Shuman the braves (more than thirty strong) found the retreat, and the camp fire burning under a roaster sufficiently large to serve a barrel of the bivalves at a time. In the cache the oysters in quantity were found in their pristine glory, fresh from the waters of the Chesapeake bay, for they were still fat, plump and salty, giving assurance that with a disregard of evil germs this is an appropriate time to eat them from the shell in their delicious salty juice or roasted to a crisp. The Red Men of the West were remembered amid the jollity of the occasion and sympathy was expressed for their privation of the luxury of the east, when a brave remarked "Buffalo and fire water is good enough for them."

Wedding.

One of the prettiest autumn weddings so far this season took place last evening at 7:45 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents on south Fairfax street, when Miss Edna Earl Tomlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O. Tomlin, was married to Mr. Ferdinand Lewis Knight. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph A. Jeffers, of Trinity M. E. Church, Mrs. Charles G. Lennon rendering Mendelssohn's wedding march. The parlors were beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers. The bride wore white brussels net over tulle, elaborately trimmed with lace. A reception lasting from 8 to 10 o'clock followed, attended by a large number of friends, at which elaborate refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Knight left at 9:20 p. m. over the Southern Railway for Charlotte, N. C., and Palm Beach, Fla. The bride's going-away gown was blue cloth with hat to match. On their return home they will live at 304 south Fairfax street. The young couple were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents.

Personal.

Capt. S. B. Davis, who formerly commanded the United States army lighter Kearney, but who was a few weeks ago transferred to a quartermaster's department vessel on duty at Fort Monroe, has entered upon the discharge of his new duties. Captain Davis is employed in placing the targets for the big gun practice from the fort and he has also to take his boat outside the capes and steal in, if possible, undetected by the searchlights from the fort. Opera House.

One of the very best popular-priced attractions on the road this season is the Arnold Stock Company, which begins a week's engagement at the Opera House next Monday night. Misses Flora Nelson, Lee Clover, Alice Bolton, Edna Baldwin, Baby Daniels, Marion West, Glyde Franklin, and T. C. Molyneux, George Llewellyn, Charlie Haynard, Raymond Payne, Harry P. Price, the Southern Brothers and Royce Alton are among the company. The following plays will be presented: "A Daughter of Satan," "Midnight in Chinatown," "Resurrection," "The Little Mother," "The Deserter," "Struggles of Life," and "The Sleeping City." An entire car load of special scenery is carried for these plays.

The manager of the Opera House has engaged Mr. Lucien Dufley, formerly of this city, the well-known scenic artist, to paint a new set of scenery for the house which will be used during the engagement of the Arnold Stock Company. This company also carries a complete set of new scenery for each production.

Funerals.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Dolly Callahan took place from the residence, on 1-1/2 street, between Fairfax and Lee, this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Brooke of the Second Presbyterian Church. The funeral was attended by a number of relatives and friends of the family.

The remains of Miss Selma E. Horstman, who died in Washington on Wednesday, were brought here this afternoon and interred.

Delay in Building.

Considerable delay has been caused to the contractor, Mr. J. F. Rodgers, in the remodeling of the Miller building, on King street, to be used by the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Company, by reason of the failure to receive the terra cotta to be used in the building. The terra cotta specially ordered for the building and which was to have been here some weeks ago was ruined in its burning at the kilns and an entirely new lot had to be made. This is expected to reach here in a short time.

The Weather.

The cloudy and threatening weather of yesterday brought rain last night. There were several heavy showers, and an hour or two before day the wind changed to the northwest and blew with considerable force. No serious damage resulted in this city or vicinity. During the prevalence of the wind a large schooner loaded with stone for the new highway bridge across the Potomac was blown against the iron railroad bridge. As the day advanced the weather became fair and cool.

Football.

The Alexandria Athletic Club will play the Tanglewood football team Saturday evening at 4:30 o'clock on the old fair grounds. The line up of the Alexandrians will be as follows: Delaney, center; Tenneyson, r. guard; McKenney, l. guard; Hobson, r. tackle; Green, l. tackle; Gray, l. end; Green, r. end; Kirk, q. back; Patterson, l. half-back; Chauncey, full back; Bradley, r. half-back; Tomlin, Garrett and Scrivener, substitutes.

A Test Case.

Complaint was made to Police Justice Caton this morning against a King street merchant who is charged with occupying the sidewalk in the display of his wares. The matter is in the nature of a test case, and Justice Caton decided that the merchant should not occupy only a reasonable amount in the display of his wares before dark.

Hospital Notes.

Wesley Harris, colored, was struck by a Washington-Southern Railway train at Quantico yesterday evening and painfully injured. He was brought to this city and placed in the Alexandria Hospital where he was attended by Dr. W. M. Smith.

The McCue Case.

As stated in the Gazette of that day, the McCue murder case was continued in Charlottesville yesterday until tomorrow in order to secure a jury.

William O. Durette, the witness whose absence caused some delay in the proceedings of Tuesday, reached Charlottesville yesterday.

Another chapter in the murder story involves a man at one time suspected of the crime, whose escape from arrest and possible summary punishment was almost by accident. There is a woman also indirectly in this story of the early suspect.

The description given by the ex-mayor the night of the tragedy pointed toward Lester Marshall, of Earlyville, Albemarle county. His wife, who is now suing for divorce, is a resident of Charlottesville. Marshall was known to have a grudge against the ex-mayor and to have no liking for Police Justice McCue. Officers were sent on a hot trail after Marshall that night, but they found that he was at church at the time of the murder. Marshall believes, as do many others, that had been in Charlottesville on the night of the tragedy, he would have been arrested, identified and promptly hanged.

The woman who wrote McCue affectionate letters in jail is said to have been identified, and that evidence concerning his association with other women than his wife will be introduced in evidence. Another "woman's" side of the case is the great bitterness felt by many females against the accused. Many letters are being received in various quarters from women, and they are terrific in their denunciation of the accused. A remarkable document came to hand yesterday. It originated in Petersburg and was written by a woman, who says she is fifty years of age. It warns the Commonwealth not to look to Petersburg men for a conviction of any man accused of wife-murder. Several wives have been murdered in Petersburg, continues the postal, and they have all escaped. In fact, asserts the fair writer, in conclusion, there is not a man in all Petersburg to whom a woman can safely trust her life. The communication has been the source of much keen amusement.

Confession of a Priest.

Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes: "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began to use Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years." If you want a relief medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons. Only 50c.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
